C24	For this question, we would like you to make a best guess. If all three of your guesses are close to what we have in our data, we will provide you additional Rs 5 at the end of the survey. We went to other villages in Odisha and offered some people of your caste one-day jobs. The job was very similar to what you were asked about today, involving making paper bags for most of the time and working on one other task for some small amount of time for Rs 300. [Explain that they were also in the same privacy condition]. If we asked 10 people of your caste, how many do you think turned down the job offers when it involved washing clothes? When it involved repairing leather shoes? When it involved sweeping latrine?	Task condition pre-fill: [] 1. Public [] 2. Section D: Caste- Social Interaction

In this section of the survey, I will read you some short stories about people. You need to tell me what you think about these people and whether you agree with their views or not. There is no right or wrong answer here. We just want to know your views. Please let me know if anything is unclear or if you didn't understand the story properly.

D1	Kartik Behera and Tuna Naika are both agricultural laborers. They work together for the same landlord and in the evenings they come back to the village together. Once, when they were returning to the village, Tuna offered some home-made sweets to Kartik. A senior village member saw this and reprimanded Kartik for eating the sweets because Tuna Naika is of a lower caste. Do you think it's wrong for a higher caste person to accept home-cooked food from a lower caste person?	<input type="checkbox"/> 1. It is very wrong to accept the food <input type="checkbox"/> 2. It is wrong to accept the food <input type="checkbox"/> 3. Neither agree or disagree <input type="checkbox"/> 4. It is okay to accept food <input type="checkbox"/> 5. It is completely fine to accept food <input type="checkbox"/> -99. Refused to answer
D2	Bindusagar Behera and Rabi Naika have been friends since childhood. Whenever Rabi went to meet Bindusagar, he was not allowed to enter Bindusagar's house. They would talk outside Bindusagar's house. Now Bindusagar is getting married and he has invited Rabi to be a part of the marriage festivities. During the wedding, Rabi sits separately to eat (according to his caste). Do you think these village norms are acceptable as Rabi is from a lower caste?	<input type="checkbox"/> 1. It is completely acceptable <input type="checkbox"/> 2. It is somewhat acceptable <input type="checkbox"/> 3. Neither agree or disagree <input type="checkbox"/> 4. It is unacceptable <input type="checkbox"/> 5. It is completely unacceptable <input type="checkbox"/> -99. Refused to answer
D3	Gagan Dalai has not been finding enough work in his village recently. He is very worried for his family. A contractor had recently come to the village and offered him 7 days' work in another village. The contractor offered him Rs.350/day for cleaning sewage tanks. Gagan refused the job as it is lower caste work. Do you think Gagan did the right thing?	<input type="checkbox"/> 1. I fully agree with Gagan's choice <input type="checkbox"/> 2. I somewhat agree with Gagan's choice <input type="checkbox"/> 3. Neither agree or disagree <input type="checkbox"/> 4. I somewhat disagree with Gagan's choice <input type="checkbox"/> 5.
